Tom : Welcome to XYZ Controls, David. I am Tom.

David : Hello, it's nice to meet you.

Tom : Nice to meet you too. How are you doing today ?

David : I am doing well, and yourself ?

Tom : Great, thanks. I hope we didn't keep you waiting for long.

David : No, I had the chance to talk to one of your engineers while waiting.

Tom : That's good. David, shall we start ?

David : Yeah, sure.

Tom : First of all, let me introduce myself. I am the manager of our engineering department here and we have an open position, so we have been interviewing applicants to fill the position as quickly as possible.

David : Yes sir, I read about the position on your website, and I think I am a good fit.

Tom : We have several ongoing projects and the team is working hard.

David : What are the important qualifications required for the position ?

Tom : This is an entry-level engineering position, and we'll give you a lot of training here. However, we require that you have a bachelor's degree in computer engineering. Previous experience in the field is a plus.

David : What kind of experience do you count as a work in the field ?

Tom : Even though we give training, it would be great if you had some hands-on programming experience, knowledge of database systems or skills on developing applications.

David : My final school project was actually developing a mobile application, so I am fairly good at developing mobile and web applications.

Tom : That's good to hear. Which school did you graduate from ?

David : I was a student at ABC University, and I graduated with a bachelor's degree in computer science. I worked as a computer lab tutor in school for about 2 years.

① ( their projects / get / students through / helped / guiding / experience / me ) in several programming languages.

Tom : What are you looking for in a job ?

David : The job should help me grow in my career. I will be happy to learn and grow as I work in a great company like yours.

Tom : You are right. There is a lot of ②room for advancement in our company. What are your ③strengths ? Why should I hire you ?

David : I am a diligent person and a fast learner. I am very eager to learn. My friends also find me very easy to work with.

Tom : Very well. Now, do you mind working overtime ?

David : ④はい, 大丈夫です (3語).

Tom : Because, sometimes we get surprised with heavy workload.

David : I understand that's the nature of the job. When I was going to school, I took quite a few courses each semester while working at least twenty hours every week. However, I took care of that situation very well.

Tom : Do you have any questions for me?

David : No, I think I have a pretty good understanding of the requirements. I believe that I can handle it easily, and the fact that you give all the training sounds excellent. I hope to have the opportunity to work for you.

Tom : David, it was nice to meet you. I can tell that you are a good candidate. Expect to hear from us within a week or so about the job.

David : Nice meeting you too. Thank you for your time.

Tom : Thank you for coming.

- 3 次の文章は、英語の授業での生徒のプレゼンテーションの原稿です。文章を読んで、続く問いに答えなさい。なお*を付した語（句）については文末に注があります。

Hello, there! Today I'm going to talk about Tokyo. As you know, Tokyo is the biggest city in Japan. There are a lot of popular tourist spots in it. Among them, I'll ① pick a few ones and tell you about them.

First, I want to talk about the old and new town, Asakusa. It is one of the most popular sightseeing areas in Tokyo. My parents like it and used to take me there on Sundays. The Sensōji Temple is in the center of the Asakusa district. People can see a huge red *paper lantern suspended at the gate called Kaminarimon. Do you know who presented this paper lantern to the temple? It was Kōnosuke Matsushita, the *founder of Panasonic. Two gods stand near the paper lantern. They are Fūjin, the God of Wind, and Raijin, the God of Thunder.

After we pass ② through the gate, we will walk on the Nakamise Shopping Street. The length of the street is about 300 meters and contains around 90 shops. It is known as one of the oldest shopping streets in Japan. We can buy ③ Japanese traditional toys such as Tako, Taketombo, Kendama, Darumaotoshi and many others. I recommend you buy them as a present for your host family during your homestay.

The next spot is Ueno. Ueno has a famous zoo, which many of you possibly have been to. It is called the Ueno Zoo and the foundation of the zoo *dates way back to the Meiji period. ④ 「動物園では、パンダが他のどの動物よりも人気があります。」 However, I like elephants the best. The elephants in the Ueno Zoo remind me of the story named "Faithful Elephants." A lot of people have read this sad story for several decades. Probably many of you ⑤ have read it in your early days. The three poor elephants, John, Tonky and Wanly, were ⑥ put down during the war because there was a danger of them running away and attacking the people of Tokyo. It was decided that they would be *starved to death. It was John that died first. It was the two *remainders' turn to pass away next. When a zookeeper walked by their cage, Tonky and Wanly raised their *trunks high in the air. They performed their *tricks because until then they could get food and water by doing so, but the keepers were forbidden to feed them. This is the saddest scene and always makes me cry. To my sorrow, Tonky and Wanly died a few days later. The three elephants now sleep with other animals beneath the monument at the Ueno Zoo.

In Ueno we can also enjoy cherry blossom viewing in spring. Ueno Park is a place famous for beautiful cherry blossoms. Every spring it is crowded with people ⑦ (enjoy) cherry blossoms. Cherry blossom viewing is a special attraction of spring in Japan. In the spring of 2020, however, people could not even enter the park because of *the Coronavirus disease. I hope that we will be able to enjoy the spring season to the fullest in 2021. Also, ⑧ ( ) Ueno Park, the statue of Saigō Takamori is a landmark. I think that it is the most famous statue in Japan, but have you heard this story? When the bronze statue was *unveiled, Itoko Saigō, his wife, was invited to the ceremony. As soon as she saw the statue of her husband, she said “He didn’t look like this.” I wonder if this story is true.

Finally, the last place that I would like to talk about is Ginza. ⑨「銀座について、あなたたちはどのような印象を持っていますか。」“Expensive?”, “high society?” or “town of adults?” In my opinion they are all right. In Ginza there are a lot of high-class stores which are famous all over the world. The price of *property is also ⑩(ア surprise / イ surprising / ウ surprised). The property prices of Ginza are the highest in Japan. My grandfather sometimes says that Ginza led the fashion in his youth. Crowds of young fashionable men and women used to gather in Ginza, and that made it the starting point of a fashion. People seem to have called them Miyuki-zoku, but I’m not familiar with the details. Someday I want to learn about that from my grandpa.

Without the Coronavirus disease, the Tokyo Olympic Games could have been held in the summer in 2020. It is ⑪put off until 2021. I definitely want to watch the Olympics in Tokyo next summer. If it cannot be held then, it will unfortunately be cancelled. That must be avoided absolutely. I hope that we will talk about the Olympics during the summer vacation.

That’s all for my presentation. Thank you very much for listening.
