M: I have a toothache and because of this, I could not sleep well for two nights. I am hoping Dr. Reyes would have some time to see me this week.

W: I'm afraid he's fully booked this week. But there's one slot available for next week.

M: Great!

【問題 B】

英文を聞き、その質問に対して最も適切なものを a,b,c,d の中から選び、記号で答えなさい。

Woman:

Hello, everyone. I am going to tell you about my life as an exchange student. I am Karen and I came to Boston two weeks ago to study at a language school. I want to learn English because it is a very important language. English is no doubt the universal language; it offers the opportunity to get a good job in a multinational company within your country or abroad. Since I was young, I want to work in an international company because people there speak English fluently and it sounds cool.

I stay with an American host family; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have two sons and a daughter. Mr. Johnson is a science professor at Boston University and Mrs. Johnson works in a hospital as a nurse. The Americans are very kind and very hospitable but there is a slight problem, they talk very quickly. I had an embarrassing story when we went to a Spanish restaurant. I ate paella for the first time, and Mr. Johnson asked "How do you find it?" I then answered. "In the menu." I was so confused with his question and I did not know what to answer. Fortunately, Mr. Johnson explained the question and it only meant, what I could say about the food. From that day on, I decided to study hard so that I would be very fluent at speaking English and be like a native speaker when I go back to Japan.

Question:

1. Where does this speech take place?
2. What does Mr. Johnson do?
3. What was the problem at the restaurant?
